STUBBORN FIGHTThousands of Wounded Arriving at Constantinople.

AUSTRIA JOINS OTHER POWERS

Question of Mediation Thus Makes Another Step Forward—Danger to European Peace Lying in Antagonistic Interests of Serbia and Austria Causes Other Nations and Balkan States to Realize Need of Cooperation.London, Nov. 12.—Judging by all precedents in the present war the news from Constantinople is the herald of another Turkish defeat at the Tchatalja lines, where a battle has been proceeding for the last two or three days.The Turkish admission that so many wounded are arriving at the capital as to show that the Turks are offering fierce resistance has a great significance, in view of previous admissions of a similar nature, and may be regarded as preparing the public mind for another disappointment. It may be quite possible that this will prove the last great battle of the campaign.There are indications that Bulgaria may, after all, forego a triumphal entry into Constantinople. According to some reports Bulgaria will be content with finding suitable winter quarters for her army while the peace negotiations are going on and subsequent settlements are being arranged.The question of mediation has made another step forward in the announcement from Paris that the Austrian government has agreed to join with the other powers in transmitting Turkey's request for mediation to the allies and in inquiring on what terms the allies are disposed to accept mediation.The revelation of the danger to European peace lying in the antagonistic interests of Austria and Serbia appears to have quickened the sense of the powers, and probably of the Balkan states also, to the imperative need of working in amicable co-operation to procure a settlement of the Balkan problems acceptable to all the parties concerned.Another factor making for the speedy cessation of the war is the approach of severe winter conditions, which would give to the campaign an exceedingly arduous character.There still is talk in Vienna of sending an ultimatum to Serbia and other warlike reports, but it is believed Germany is exercising an ameliorating influence in the direction of persuading both Austria and Serbia to consent to a postponement of the settlement until the whole matter can be dealt with by the European conference.

ARMY IS IN SORRY PLIGHT

Turkish Soldiers Without Food and Medical Attention.Paris, Nov. 12.—A staff correspondent of the Temps, Jean Rodes, who has reached Constantinople from the war zone, sends a vivid picture of the misery of the Turkish soldiers and the disorganization of the Turkish army. He says:"We have witnessed the failure of the Turk as a soldier. We have seen him dying of hunger, worn out by fatigue, wrecked by suffering and running away after having abandoned his place in the combat.""I have never seen a more poignant picture of human distress than that presented by these unhappy men, brown into one of the most terrible fears in history, without food, without medical attention, almost without clothes, almost without arms. And at last I saw a soldier whose right arm had been severed, hold out to us, begging for medical help, the bleeding tump around which he had tied a piece of twine."

4,000 SICK AND WOUNDED

American Ambassador Reports on Sufferers in Constantinople.Washington, Nov. 12.—American ambassador Rockhill at Constantinople cabled the state department that there are now 14,000 sick and wounded in the capital of Turkey, practically all of whom are prisoners of war.
Seventeen cases of cholera have been reported to the city by soldiers in the last few days, he reports. Some 18-20 refugees are being cared for by the Ottoman government and there is some sickness, including smallpox, among them.The American Red Cross authorities are estimating from Mr. Rockhill's figures that there must be about 75,000 sick and wounded soldiers of various nationalities in the field who need care.

JUST DOPE ABOUT BRYAN

Wilson Does Not Believe He Said He Would Not Enter Cabinet.Princeton, N. J., Nov. 12.—A newspaper dispatch from Washington was cited to Governor Wilson's attention claiming that close friends of William Jennings Bryan said he would fill a post in the cabinet.
"Oh, but Mr. Bryan did not say that," remarked the governor, "that is just a piece of dope."FAVORS ANOTHER

FIGURING ON EXTRA SESSION

Incoming Executive Still Has His Mind Open on Question and Asks Newspaper Correspondents to Obtain for Him a List of the Public and Business Men Who Have Come Out for or Against the Proposition.Princeton, N. J., Nov. 12.—"I hope there will be a new member of the cabinet for the department of labor," President Elect Wilson said. "It will be a very important selection to make.
Everybody confidently expects it and I have been told that all sides in congress are in favor of the new department. Immediate creation of the new department is, of course, dependent upon the action of the approaching session of congress."The president elect has his mind open on the question of whether he shall call an extra session of congress to revise the tariff.
He asked the newspaper correspondents to obtain for him a list of the public men and business men who had declared themselves for or against the extra session. Though the governor has tried to follow closely from the newspapers the various expressions of opinion he said he was afraid he might have missed some of them in his reading and that he was anxious to get all the opinions before him.It is known that Governor Wilson has a high regard for the opinion of Oscar W. Underwood, the majority leader of the Democrats in the last session, and that in making up his mind he will give careful attention to Mr. Un-derwood's arguments. Mr. Underwood is reported as favoring an extra session."I have no immediate intention of making an announcement," said the president elect, "but I would like to get the names of those who have given affirmative and those who have given negative opinions in regard to the advisability of calling an extra session. I refer not only to members of congress, but to all important Democratic leaders."The president elect was asked if he had received many requests that an extra session be called."No, I have not," he replied, "but I can only answer for the telegrams. I have had none among the telegrams.
My secretary has sifted out most of the letters and I know as yet only their general nature and I do not think they touch on a special session."

MAY AID ACT IN SENATE

Governor Wilson's Statement Favoring Department of Labor.Washington, Nov. 12.—Governor Wilson's statement that he hoped there would be a new member of the cabinet for the department of labor, is expected to strengthen support of the bill creating such a department now before the senate, so that it will be passed in the early days of the session opening Dec. 2.The bill passed the house July 16 and was one of the measures buffeted about during the closing days of the session in August, when attempts were made to force the senate to vote on it.Senator Borah was in charge of the bill and has indicated his purpose to push it for action as soon as congress reconvenes.

WILSON GAINS IN CALIFORNIA

Democratic Returns Reduce Colonel's Plurality to 415.San Francisco, Nov. 12.—Returns on the California presidential vote sent to the Democratic state headquarters in response to a telegram calling upon county chairmen to forward the results of the official count began arriving here.Figures received from the chairman in five counties showed a net increase for Wilson of 503 votes over the "unofficial" count, reducing Roosevelt's plurality to 415.

ENVOY TO JAPAN RESIGNS

Ambassador Charles Page Bryan Gives Ill Health as Reason.Washington, Nov. 12.—Charles Page Bryan, United States ambassador to Japan, has sent his resignation to President Taft, who reluctantly accepted it. Mr. Bryan gave ill health, brought on by a carriage accident in Japan, as the reason for his resignation. He is now at his home in Elmhurst, Ill., receiving medical treatment.

Fourth Victim in Three Days.

Minneapolis, Nov. 12.—Four victims in three days is the automobile accident record in Minneapolis, the fourth victim being Joseph Le Muer, fourteen years old, fatally injured when an automobile skidded into a dirt cart on which the boy was riding toward his home. He died two hours later at Swedish hospital.

TARIFF BEFORE BANK LAW

Underwood Gives His Idea of Democratic Program.Chicago, Nov. 12.—J. Laurence Laughlin, chairman of the National Citizens' league for the promotion of a sound banking system, made public a letter from Oscar W. Underwood, Democratic floor leader in the house of representatives, in which the Alabama man declared that the tariff was first and banking reform second as the big issues before the American people.The letter concluded by stating that Mr. Underwood favored a special session of congress to take up the subject of the tariff.CABINET INTENDS IGNORING DEFEATBritish Officials Give Reasons for Not Resigning.London, Nov. 12.—The cabinet council held after the government's defeat in parliament lasted two hours, at the end of which its decision not to resign was announced. An official statement, which was issued, declares that the adoption of the amendment was clearly due to a snap division on a motion which was not even in accordance with a rule adopted on Nov.
7 by a majority of 121."The government, therefore," the statement concludes, "does not consider that its defeat necessitates any change in its program, which, in respect to home rule, has been supported by majorities seldom short of 100."

NO ILLINOIS EXTRA SESSION

Governor Finds New Law Makers Would Compose Legislature.Springfield, Ill., Nov. 12.—The proposed special session of the Illinois legislature for the purpose of electing a Republican senator to fill the Lorimer vacancy in the United States senate was abandoned by Governor Charles S. Denen when it was discovered that under the law the newly elected legislative members would be eligible for seats. The legislature, therefore, would not be controlled by either the Democrats or Republicans, the Progressives and Socialists holding the balance of power.The election of two United States senators, one to fill the Lorimer vacancy and the other to succeed Senator Cullom, whose term expires in March, will be placed before the regular legislative session next January.

WILL AMEND DIVORCE LAWS

Reno No Longer to Be Divorce Center of United States.Reno, Nev., Nov. 12.—One of the many surprising results of the recent elections is that after next January Nevada will no longer be the divorce center of the United States. Complete returns show that the next legislature will have a majority opposed to the present lax divorce laws, which have brought thousands of women and men into the state for the sole purpose of freeing themselves from burdensome matrimonial bonds.Many of the bona fide citizens of the state have held that the frivolous divorce colony of Reno was a public scandal and more restrictive laws was made a campaign issue. It is almost certain that one of the first acts of the new legislature will be to amend the divorce laws and to fix the residence necessary to obtain citizenship at one year instead of six months.

Postmaster Burns to Death.

Beresford, S. D., Nov. 12.—Postmaster C. A. Ramsdell of Beresford was burned to death under his automobile when the machine turned turtle while he was returning from Sioux Falls.
Another occupant of the car escaped with slight injuries, but was unable to aid Ramsdell.

Dr. Thomas Henry Dies.

Lynchburg, Va., Nov. 12.—Dr.
Thomas Henry, said to be the last surviving grandson of Patrick Henry, died at Redhill, the famous ancestral home of the Henry family. He was eighty years old.DEATHS OF OUR VICE PRESIDENTSSix of Sherman's Predecessors Died in Office.

FOUR OCCURRED IN NOVEMBER

The First Was George Clinton—Others Were Elbridge Gerry, William R.
King, Henry Wilson, Thomas A.
Hendricks and Garret A. Hobart.James S. Sherman was the seventh vice president to die in office. Of the six deaths already on record four occurred in November. The first was George Clinton of New York, who died April 20, 1812, at the age of seventy-three. The others were Elbridge Gerry of Massachusetts, Nov.
23, 1814, at the age of seventy;
William R. King of Alabama, April 18, 1853, at the age of sixty-seven; Henry Wilson of Massachusetts, Nov. 22, 1875, at the age of sixty-three; Thomas A. Hendricks of Indiana, Nov. 25, 1885, at the age of sixty-six; and Gar-ret A. Hobart of New Jersey, Nov.
21, 1890, at the age of fifty-five.William R. King took the oath of office in Cuba, where he had gone on account of ill health. He never presided over the senate. Clinton, Gerry and Wilson died in Washington, and Clinton and Gerry were buried in the Congressional cemetery. King was buried in Dallas county, Ala. Hendricks in Indianapolis and Hobart in Paterson, N. J.

Became Presidents.

It is worth noting that only four vice presidents of the United States were afterward elected to the presidency. They were John Adams, Thomas Jefferson, Martin Van Buren and Theodore Roosevelt. Five succeeded to the presidency through the death of the chief executive. These were John Tyler, Millard Fillmore, Andrew Johnson, Chester A. Arthur and Theodore Roosevelt.Vice presidents who were renominated or re-elected were John Adams, vice president 1789 and 1792 and president 1793; Thomas Jefferson, vice president 1796 and president 1800; George Clinton, vice president 1804 and 1805; Daniel D.
Tompkins, vice president 1816 and 1820; John C. Calhoun, vice president 1824 and 1828; Martin Van Buren, vice president 1832 and president 1836; R.
M. Johnson, vice president 1836, renominated and defeated 1840; Thomas A. Hendricks, nominated with Tilden in 1876, elected with Cleveland in 1884.Prior to the amendment of the constitution in 1804 the candidate for the presidency receiving the highest vote was declared president and the one receiving the next highest vote vice president, there being no direct candidate for the second place. After that date the electors voted separately for candidates for the two offices.

The Senate Functions.

In the senate the functions exercised by Mr. Sherman fall to the office of president pro tempore of that body, an office which happens at the present time to be vacant. But the president pro tem of the senate does not thereby become, as was once the case, a link in the chain of the presidential succession. The law governing the succession to the presidency was enacted Jan. 19, 1886, and its leading section reads:Be it enacted, etc., That in case of removal, death, resignation or inability of both the president and the vice president of the United States the secretary of state or  secretary of the treasury or  secretary of war or  attorney general or  postmaster general or  secretary of the navy or  secretary of the interior shall act as president until the disability of the president or vice president is removed or a president shall be elected.The law also provides that when one of the above cabinet officers succeeds to the presidency he shall call a special session of congress. A proviso limits the succession to those cabinet officers who would be eligible to the presidency under the terms of the constitution and who have been appointed with the advice and consent of the senate.

MARKERS FOR TITANIC DEAD.

Monuments Being Erected Over Graves of Victims in Halifax.The graves of the victims of the Titanic disaster of April 15 who were buried in Halifax cemeteries are being individually marked. Several memorial monuments have been contracted for by the White Star line, owners of the Titanic, and will be placed over the graves.Halifax cemetery retain the bodies of 150 Titanic victims. Most of them are men. Many remain unidentified, but there have been occasional identifications, even within a few months, and further identifications are considered likely.The markers give the names of the identified victims and the date of the disaster. In the case of unidentified bodies the markers contain numbers.

Boiled Glass.

Brittleness of glass is due to the quick cooling of the hot substance. It is known that constant motion tends to rearrange the molecule in any substance, and a similar effect is observed when glass is boiled in a weak solution of salt in water and allowed to cool gradually. The toughness of the glass is increased very much, and the effect of quick heating is less disastrous to it. This is easily applied to articles used in the laboratory and to glass globes for lighting purposes and prevents much breakage.

RAMON CORRAL.

Former Vice President of Mexico Is Dead at Paris.Nogales, Ariz., Nov. 12.—A cablegram received here announces the death in Paris of Ramon Corral, formerly vice president of Mexico. All sence of Mother.Mandan, N. D., Nov. 12.—While their mother looked on powerless to effect a rescue the two-year-old twin children of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dowd of this city were cremated.The children were playing in the kitchen of the home when a lamp exploded. Mrs. Dowd was some distance from the house and when she reached it the children were dead.MORE GRIEF COMES JACK JOHNSON'S WAYFederal Grand Jury Returns Four More Indictments.Chicago, Nov. 12.—The federal grand jury returned four additional indictments against Jack Johnson, negro pugilist, on further charges of violations of the Mann act against interstate transportation of women for immoral purposes.The indictments charged Johnson with taking Belle Schreiber from Milwaukee to Chicago; from Indianapolis to Chicago; from Detroit, Mich., to Chicago; and from Chicago to Milwaukee.The name of Lucille Cameron of Minneapolis does not figure in any of the indictments.

His spirit apparently broken Johnson issued a statement from his cell in the county jail, in which he declared that he is being persecuted.
He expressed the belief that the United States supreme court will grant him his liberty under bonds.Meanwhile the federal grand jury continued its rigorous investigation into the private life of the pugilist in so far as it concerns his relations with white women.

FOURTEEN PERSONS KILLED

Ninety Others Injured in Railway Collision.New Orleans, Nov. 12.—The Louisiana state railroad and warehouse commission has asked the interstate commerce commission to join in an investigation of the wreck on the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley railroad at Mount, La., in which fourteen persons were killed and ninety injured.Brakeman Cunningham, on whom, it is said, blame for the wreck rests, has disappeared. Cunningham, it is asserted, was assigned to go back from the crowded excursion train, stop at a curve and flag an oncoming freight.
He failed and the freight ploughed its way through the passenger.News of the wreck was sent to the railroad company's offices here and in Baton Rouge and relief trains were sent out.

SAY WOMEN ARE BANDITS

Butte Police Arrest Mother and Her Daughter.Butte, Mont., Nov. 12.—Mrs. Maud Jones and her daughter Genevieve were arrested by the police charged with being the bandits who held up and robbed Fred Ureck of a purse containing about $50 and a watch and chain at the same time.The police are convinced the women have been responsible for several holdups in the last few weeks and say they have worn men's clothing in perpetrating them. The women admit being implicated in the Ureck robbery.When accused of leading her daughter into crime Mrs. Jones said: "We have had to live, somehow." Genevieve is a beautiful girl of about eighteen years.

Vice President Sherman was admitted to probate in surrogate's court here.

Carrie Babcock Sherman, and wills all of his estate to her. In her petition with previous expressions of his own and of his colleagues he reiterates that the "Progressive party has come polling more than 4,000,000 votes in rally in the path of a new movement as "literally unparalleled in the history

MRS. CLEVELAND'S FRANK.
Question Whether She Will Lose Her Mailing Privilege.
Whether Mrs. Grover Cleveland when she marries Professor Thomas J. Preston of Wells college will lose the privilege of "franking" all her mails, a privilege that is customarily granted all widows of former presidents, was a question which the postoffice department evaded with the declaration that they would not cross the bridge until they came to it.
By a special act of congress several years ago the department was authorized to accept as prepaid all mail countersigned by Mrs. Cleveland, and instructions were issued to postmasters requiring them to recognize her signature. If the franking privilege is continued new orders will have to be issued instructing recognition of a new signature, when Mrs. Cleveland becomes Mrs. Preston.
It was the opinion of several lawyers that the only way Mrs. Cleveland could lose her mailing frank was by the repeal of the statute granting her the courtesy.

TO CAMPAIGN FOR FUNDS

Board of Directors of Y. M. C. A. Announce Intention to Raise Money for Institution

RELIEVE ITS INDEBTEDNESS

What Was Done at 14th Conference of Railroad Associations at Chicago Last Month

The announcement by the board of directors of the local Y. M. C. A. of their intention of instituting a campaign for funds to relieve the association of its indebtedness, which has become a real burden and a hindrance to the association's efficiency, calls to mind some of the facts of the fourteenth international conference of the railroad association of North America, held in Chicago last month, to which Mr. Edward Crust was sent as a delegate from this place.

More than fifteen hundred men representing every department of railroad service from the presidents office to the sweeper who removed the dirt and waste from the floor of the shop with a broom or brush, and coming from practically every railroad shop and division point in North America, were present as delegates and all sat down at a banquet together in the armory on the opening night. Safety and efficiency are demanded by the public, the management and the stockholders of a railroad. The sixteen hundred men who met in Chicago last month added co-operation to the interpretation of the requirements of the Young Men's Christian association, and thus was the motto adopted, Co-operation, safety and efficiency. Never before in the history of the country were so many men representing as many departments of railroad control and operation gathered together in one meeting. Men of all ranks met on common ground to discuss the common cause.

At the banquet Hon. H. B. F. MacFarland, of Washington, acted as toastmaster and speeches were made by the following men who heartily commended the work being done by the railroad department of the Y. M. C. A. and proffered all the help in their power to assist in its continued usefulness; President Mudge, of the Rock Island; President Stevens of the C. & O.; President Busa, of the M. P.; Cyrus H. McCormick, of Chicago; Engineer Bird, of the Big Four; Conductor Haymer, of the C. & O.; Fireman Lawrence, of the B. & C.; Switchman Longhead, of the Pennsylvania; Brakeman Lethbridge, of the El Paso and Southwestern, and Shopman Hafler of the Pennsylvania.

Calls were made for associations to be located at many points where none exist at the present time, among others, Fall City, Neb.; Amarillo, Tex.; and Tucumcari, N. M. Mr. Crutington, of Amarillo, Texas, said that the citizens of Amarillo had sent him there and paid all his expenses, to ask for an association, that Amarillo was a growing terminal city with 14,000 people in a territory larger than Indiana and that the men wanted an association to help assimilate themselves into the citizenship of the city. It would seem that we were unappreciative of the blessing we have in possessing a department of the association in our city if we let the board continue any longer to be embarrassed and hampered in their work by letting this old debt remain on its hands. It is certain that the Brainerd people will respond in their usual liberal way to the call of the Young Men's Christian Association when given an opportunity.

BAIL IS RAISED

Girls Arrested on a Charge of Keeping House of Ill Fame are Late in Court

The cases against two girls and three men, set for hearing in the municipal court this morning, were continued to this afternoon. The girls are charged with keeping a house of ill fame and the men with frequenting the place. Officers Squires, Peterson and Miller accompanied by a citizen of the third ward, made the arrests. When no girls appeared, Judge G. S. Swanson ordered bench warrants for their arrest, but before they could be served the women appeared and pleaded that over sleeping was the cause of their tardiness in appearing in court.

Judge Swanson raised their bail to $200 each. The scene of the alleged orgy of the men and women is said to have been a house in the so-called Nine Row in Northeast Brainerd.

Kyllingstad-Huseby

On Wednesday morning, November 6th, at 10:30 occurred the wedding of Blix Sunde Kyllingstad and Miss Nora Emelia Huseby at the Norwegian Lutheran church in Maple Grove, Rev. C. Hougstad of Brainerd, performing the ceremony. The bride was attired in a handsome gown of pink silk and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. She was attended by two bridesmaids, the Misses Mabel and Olga Huseby of Wadena, dressed in cream serge and carrying bouquets of roses. The best men were Fred and Richard Kyllingstad. The bridal march was played by Miss Jennie Zakariassen, violinist and Miss Jennie Wilson organist of Brainerd.

A sumptuous dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Huseby. The home was prettily decorated in pink and white. Among the out of town guests were Math Huseby, Elmer Huseby and Mr. and Mrs. John Swanson, all of Wadena. The happy couple received many beautiful and useful presents. They will make their home in Long Lake township.

The Dispatch joins their many friends in wishing them much happiness and prosperity.

"The Havoc"

Mr. Paul Gilmore the actor-manager will be presented in a big dominant role of the type which playgoers have learned to associate with his name. "The Havoc" is a terse, gripping drama built upon the story of a duel of wills between an injured husband and a treacherous guest in his home. The big role of the play, the husband offers one of the most convincing characters seen on the stage in recent years, and is played by Mr. Gilmore with the quiet power and tense nervous force he showed in "The Mummy and the Humming Bird." By sheer power of his acting he dominates the powerful dramatic situations of "The Havoc" with perfect ease and during the scenes that are softened by brilliant ironic comedy, he makes the author's satiric lines snap and sparkle and burn with his quick, nervous crisp decisive tones. At the opera house Friday evening, Nov. 15th.

TEDDY'S ASSAILANT PLEADS GUILTY

Municipal Judge A. C. Backus announced, upon reading the petition of the district attorney W. C. Zabel, that he would name a commission to examine into Schrank's mental condition.

ERRING HUSBAND LANDS IN JAIL

Brainerd "Minister" Jailed Near Cumberland, Wis., on a Statutory Charge

LATTER WAS AN EVANGELIST

The Cumberland, Wis., correspondent of the Superior Telegram gives the following story concerning A. L. DeBord and Grace Davis, alleged to have come from Brainerd a year ago.

Sheriff J. M. Rassbach arrested A. L. DeBord alias Rev. A. L. Davis and Grace Davis on a statutory charge and took them and their little boy to Barron yesterday, where the man and woman were placed in jail to await trial and the boy will be sent to a home. DeBord and the Davis woman came here from Brainerd, Minn., about a year ago and have been living as husband and wife, toiling during the week days on a rented farm near town, while DeBord, claiming to be Rev. Davis, an evangelist of the Free Methodist church, preached every Sunday to a good sized congregation in a country school house, two miles west of town. City Marshal Utman received letters and photographs from Mrs. A. L. DeBord of her husband and the Davis woman, with a request that they be placed under arrest and brought back to Minnesota. The Minnesota authorities did not follow up the case so it was dropped until last week when District Attorney Taylor of this county received a complaint from the wronged wife and acting upon the same, had the sheriff arrest the pair. Before leaving here DeBord said he was ready to plead guilty to the charge.

Skovgaard, Nov. 13th

Of Skovgaard, the great violinist who plays at the Brainerd opera house on Wednesday evening, November 13th, the Trondhjem, Norway. Adresseavisen says: "Mr. Skovgaard has splendid technique and a beautiful tone. He plays with good taste, and has unusual power and command over his instrument, whether in neck-breaking runs, pizzicato, flageolet or other daring feats."

The Berlin, Germany, Local Anzeiger says: "Skovgaard is a perfect master of his instrument and his audience is involuntarily drawn into a state of perfect harmony with him. He overcame the greatest technical difficulties with ease and the taste and the thorough comprehension which characterized his playing proves that he possesses a complete knowledge of his art."

Gottelberg, Sweden, Handels ock Sjöfarts Tidningen: "It was with much pleasure that we made the acquaintance of the Danish violinist, Axel Skovgaard, last night. He is one of the world's great artists, and the greatest living Scandinavian violinist. Standing on the stage, this colossal Dane is only music. Each movement of the body, while he is playing, is nothing but music, and the expression on his face tells you plainly that he is far away from you, deep in the 'land of tunes'."

Tickets for the Skovgaard entertainment on Wednesday night are on sale at Dunn's drug store. All persons holding tickets may have seats reserved there. The price of the tickets is 50 cents.

"Two Daughters of Eve"

Calumny is one of the most despicable crimes against our neighbor, and while the wife in this story acted conventionally, she nevertheless maligned the other woman simply because of her profession—an actress. While out on a shopping tour, the wife and her husband enter a store, leaving their little child in the auto in the care of the chauffeur. This gentleman pays but scant attention to the child, so the little one wanders off and strolls into the stage door of a theatre during the matinee. The parents upon their return to the auto discover the child's absence and trace him to the theatre stage, where they find him in the arms of one of the show girls. The mother snatches the child from the girl's arms, scornfully exclaiming, "How dare you contaminate my child with your touch?" For this remark, together with the derisive laughter it occasions, the girl vows to be avenged.

MORE "HAVOC" VERSES

One More Day of Versification Left for the Budding Geniuses of Brainerd and Vicinity

On Wednesday evening, November 13, as the shop whistle is blowing its six o'clock blast, the stentorian tones will usher in the end of the "Havoc" rhyme and limerick contest which has stirred the poets of Brainerd and the Cuyuna range to activity and has caused an unprecedented rush for dictionaries and such literature in order to find words which will rhyme on the last turn.

It has been a busy week for the Dispatch poetry editor and he has selected a committee of experts in the poetry line who will pass on the hundreds of verses sent in.

Here is a nice limerick, one with quiet and witty turn, which says something, rhymes well and comes within the requirements of the contest:

For limericks I know I'm no star, There are others cleverer far;
But my verse—I don't mind it When "The Havoc's" behind it, 'Tis the people who read it I jar.

This one has several verses and is also a good example of calling attention to the Paul Gilmore performance. Mark the ingenuity displayed in the last line.

Paul Gilmore is gauged by "The Havoc" he staged.

In theatres wide and far.

He masters his work and will never shrink,

Which places his work above par.

You will never regret you can safely bet,

If you'll see Paul Gilmore play,

He's the talk of the town,

He has gained world renown.

Which makes him so famous today.

The fifteenth of November,

Is the date please remember,

Of Paul Gilmore's delightful play.

That I'll be there with my wife,

You may wager my life,

Or else there'll be H— to pay.

This limerick revives tender memories of Dr. Bell, the man who was to fly and who was killed to scatter lyddite on an opposing fleet when the United States was in danger of being shelled to pieces. The Bell-Gilmore limerick reads:

We all went to see Doc Bell—

And his ship that flew—but fell;

We were all mighty sore,

But trust Paul Gilmore—

Will not our hopes so dispel.

One young lady has taken the limerick writing so to heart, that after office hours, even when resting after supper, the verses will pop into her head and she has to sit right down at her escriptorie or pearl inlaid writing desk, grasp her fountain pen firmly by the hilt and indite a limerick and lay it at the Paul Gilmore "Havoc" shrine. Here's another one just at the shrine:

I'm keen on seeing Paul Gilmore,

They say he's some kind of an actor—

He plays good shows,

As everybody knows,

In the "Havoc" he's the chief actor.

Upstairs in the Dispatch printing office where the job presses snore and the linotype types away, there is heaven's what an awful commotion when it comes to setting the poetic emotion which comes floating in at the door forever more. Here is some poetry on the blank verse order of things and it starts out:

Are your troubles worrying you, My Business Man?

Let me tell you a wonderful cure,

Just manage to secure tickets

For the "Havoc" Friday night,

And see if I'm not right.

The concluding verse bears this poetic sentiment:

Are you very tired, My Young Lady,

Weary, discouraged, and sick,

I'll tell you the loveliest way in the world

To make you shine in your soul,

Just see "Paul" in his new play "The Havoc"

And see if I am not right.

Saved by His Wife

She's a wise woman who knows just what to do when her husband's life is in danger, but Mrs. R. J. Flint, Braintree, Vt., is of that kind. "She insisted on my using Dr. King's New Discovery," writes Mr. F., "for a dreadful cough, when I was so weak my friends all thought I had only a short time to live, and it completely cured me." A quick cure for coughs and colds, it is the most safe and reliable medicine for any throat and lung troubles—grip, bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, quinsy, tonsillitis, hemorrhages. A trial will convince you. 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by H. P. Dunn.—Adv't.

Dictionary of Terms.

Rockefeller can write a few words on a piece of paper and make it worth $50,000. That's capital. The United States can take an ounce and a quarter of gold, stamp an "eagle" on it and make it worth $20. That's money. A mechanic can take material worth $5 and make watch springs worth $1,000. That's skill. A woman can purchase a hat for $3, but prefers one which costs $30. That's foolishness. A ditch digger works ten hours a day and handles several tons of dirt for $1.25. That's labor.—Power and Efficiency.

A Domestic Distinction.

"They say that your wife wears the pants," commented the tactless friend. "She does not," responded young Mr. Enkepp, with some spirit. "She merely selects 'em."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

There is an idea abroad among moral people that they must make their neighbors good. One person I have to make good—myself. But my duty to my neighbor is much more nearly expressed by the saying that I have to make him happy—if I may.—Stevenson.

Write Ideas for Moving Picture Plays!

YOU Can Write Photo Plays and Earn $25 or More Weekly

We will Show You How

If you have ideas—if you can THINK—we will show you the secrets of this fascinating new profession. Positively no experience or literary excellence necessary. No "flowery language" is wanted.

The demand for photoplays is practically unlimited. The big film manufacturers are "moving heaven and earth" in their attempts to get enough good plots to supply the ever increasing demand. They are offering $100 and more for single scenarios, or written ideas.

Nearly all the big film companies, the buyers of photoplays, are located in or near NEW YORK CITY. Being right on the spot, and knowing at all times just what sort of plots are wanted by the producers, our SALES DEPARTMENT has a tremendous advantage over agencies situated in distant cities.

We have received many letters from the big film manufacturers, such as VITAGRAPH, EDISON, ESSANAY, LUBIN, IMP, SOLAX, REX, RELIANCE, CHAMPION, COMET, MELIES, ETC., urging us to send photoplays to them. We want more writers and we'll gladly teach you the secrets of success.

We are selling photoplays written by people who "never before wrote a line for publication."

Perhaps we can do the same for you. If you think of only one good idea every week, and will write it out as directed by us, and it sells for only $25, a low figure,

You will earn $100 Monthly for spare time work
